*Family (mom, dad, small child) pulls into Park & Ride lot. SUPER: RDU logo

Family gets on shuttle, is helped by driver, rides to terminal.

As the family enters the terminal we see an elderly person who has trouble walking being helped by curbside employee.

Ambassador in red coat answers question for the family.

Shot of military family enjoying the lounge.

The original family is going through security, meets friendly TSA screener.

*As they walk away from the screener, small child turns and waves at him.

At RDU we want your trip to be as enjoyable as possible.

We do all we can to make it that way.

With continuous shuttles, getting from the parking lot to the terminal is quick and easy.

We're there to lend a hand when you need help ...

And someone is always nearby to answer your questions.

We even have USO facilities for the traveling military and their families ...

We work hard to make RDU the friendliest airport.

Because at RDU we're all about you ... and the way you travel.
